Dear Brother North:

You were a gracious host last week. It was a real stimulation to be with you and to discuss various matters of interest between us.

I will be able to participate in the Lake Geneva encampment, June 27-July 1. The theme for the 1966 encampment is indeed a challenging one that must be faced by our brethren. Do not forget the invitation to supervisor, Kenneth Hahn. I believe that he will attend and that he will be thrilled to make, what I consider to be, a valuable contribution to the encampment. Kenny has a lovely family, all of whom are Christians. One of his sons plans to preach.

Thanks again for a wonderful visit last week.

Fraternally yours,

John Allen Chalk
